Slayer of U.S. Woman In Iran Killed

Identified As Brother-in-Law Of Bandit Leader

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Iranian federal police announced today that the slayer of Mrs. Anita Carroll was one of the Dad Shah bandits killed in a gun battle with loyal tribesmen in Baluchistan Monday.

But the leader of the bandits, the legendary Baluchistan badman known as Dad Shah, apparently had escaped a police net with most of his gang and now may be hiding out in Pakistan.

A GOVERNMENT official announced that Dad Shah's brother-in-law, Ghader Dad, has been identified as the gunman who shot pretty Mrs. Carroll March 24, shortly after the gang killed her husband, another American and two Iranian employees of the American Point 4 program in Iran.

Ghader Dad and two other bandits were killed Monday in a skirmish with a posse of loyal tribesmen armed by the government for the Dad Shah hunt.

DESPITE THIS early success against the killers, the Dad Shah incident sparked a long brewing government crisis that brought about the resignation of Premier Hussein Ala.

Aia told the nation in a radio broadcast tonight.

"I have submitted the cabinet's resignation now that his imperial majesty has commanded me to assume the post of court minister."

He offered congratulations to the present court minister, Dr. Manouchehr Eghbal, who already had been called by the Shah to form a new government.

Philharmonic to Give Concert Here April 14

The Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, with its full complement of 100 musicians, under the direction of Alfred Wallenstein, will make an appearance in Palm Springs, Sunday evening, April 14, at 8:30 at the Polo Grounds.

Presented under the sponsorship of the Playhouse Guild, the varied program will present a number particularly chosen for this concert by Conductor Wallenstein because of its brightness of sound and character.

BASED UPON American Revolutionary tunes, he felt the William Schuman New England Triptych would bear a particular appeal in an open air concert such as this one because of its buoyant rhythms and general aliveness.

The program follows:

Loewy Becomes Museum Director, to Aid in Design

The Palm Springs Desert Museum should and can be the most unique museum in the country, Raymond Loewy, Village home owner and America's foremost industrial designer, said here yesterday.

His prediction was made as he accepted appointment as a member of the Board of Directors of the Desert Museum. Later he volunteered his advice and counsel on phases of the interior designing of the new Museum to be constructed from a $200,000 fund now being raised by public subscription.

"OUR MUSEUM here must not be just another ordinary one—it must be unique and different," he told other members of the Museum board.

"Perhaps our traditional Indian background can be drawn on for ideas to be adapted to the modern use. And we have the unlimited resources of the desert all around us in addition to the colorful history of the West on which to draw."

"We are fortunate in Palm Springs in having fine architects possessing a real sense of desert values. I am confident that with the help of your museum leaders they can plan an institution that will become one of the best known to be found anywhere. It will add enormously to the character of the desert."

EARL COFFMAN, newly-seated president of the Museum, expressed the deep appreciation of the board to the noted designer, and promised that he would be called upon for his assistance as soon as the new building is assured by the public contributions. In addition to being international.

Ike Terms Quit Rumor As Just 'Rot'

Also Comments On Taxes, Korea, Budget Savings

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today denounced as rot reports that he is preparing to step out of office and turn the reins of government over to Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Mr. Eisenhower was asked at a crowded news conference about reports that he was preparing to quit the presidency when world conditions permit.

HE REPLIED THAT there is no reason for anyone to doubt his basic integrity and honesty, and that he fully intends to serve out his elected term of office.

Other highlights of the news conference:

He expressed hope that a tax reduction would be possible before he leaves office in 1961. But he declined to estimate whether such a reduction would be possible next year.

HE SAID THAT from the American standpoint the Communists are not keeping the Korean armistice in accordance with its original terms.

He denied a report that Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, had recommended a United Nations build up in South Korea with the addition of jet aircraft.

HE SAID IT IS possible to achieve some savings in foreign aid. But he said the administration still regards the $4.4 billion foreign aid request in the budget as the best estimate of a minimum program if the United States is to achieve its objectives in the Free World.

He said in response to a question that it would be possible to cut federal personnel a great deal without the operation of the government suffering unduly. But he said he has no specific plan.

HE DENIED FLATLY that he had given Generalissimo Chiang Kaishek of Nationalist China assurances that this country would, if necessary, come to the defense of Quemoy and Matsu island off the coast of Red China.

The President said he had never given any assurances that went beyond the American law and had not given China any private assurances. A biography of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles by John R. Beal said Mr. Eisenhower had given Chiang such assurances in a letter.

The meeting will last three days, ending April 5.

Israeli Troops Pursue Arabs to Jordan Border

By UNITED PRESS

Israeli officials announced that "large security forces" moved almost to the Jordan border today in pursuit of Fedayeen Arab commandoes who ambushed an Israeli police patrol.

Israel announced several new outbreaks of Fedayeen terrorism and Col. Nehemiah Brosh, the Israeli military spokesman, reported a 20-minute border clash between Syrian and Israeli troops Tuesday night.

THE OTHER INCIDENTS raising tension in Israel, Jordanians stoned an Israeli patrol in Jerusalem itself from the walls of the old Jordan-held city and an Arab farmer was killed by a mine near Taibeh village Tuesday on the Israeli-Jordan border.

Military sources said the Israeli police patrol prevented heavy losses through swift action but that two men were wounded seriously in the attack.

JORDAN WAS reported in political turmoil, but reports from there said King Hussein was winning his struggle with Premier Suileiman Manbuli over Hussein's efforts to keep Jordan from falling into the Communist camp.

Palm Desert Starts Plans For New Community Center

Palm Desert citizens last night launched organization of a community council designed to push plans for creation of a new community center.

At least 85 Palm Desert residents voted to form the council, made up of representatives from various civic groups, to develop a campaign for solicitation of funds, material and labor for construction of the center.

BUILDING PLANS call for creation of a library, arts, crafts and cultural unit and a social hall for town meetings, according to Rev. Warren McClain, Community Church pastor, who presided at the meeting.

The group discussed two possible sites for center construction. One, a four-acre plot located near Shadow Mountain Stables, was offered by Clifford Henderson. A second, smaller plot was offered

Toll Tuesday Now 16 Dead, 800 Injured

New Tornadoes Sighted Today In Same Areas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Killer Tornadoes, which crushed hundreds of homes in North Texas and Southern Oklahoma late Tuesday, killing at least 16 persons and injuring upwards of 800 others, today demonstrated that it had not spent its full force.

A new rash of tornadoes broke out at midmorning in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Four and possibly five tornado funnels were sighted in a 50-mile long section from Cleburne, Tex., to west and north of Dallas.

THERE WERE NO reports of damage from the new tornadoes. At least two of them were believed to have touched the ground.

Survivors of Tuesday's tornado in Dallas rummaged through their home today looking for anything they could salvage.

TEN PERSONS were killed in Dallas, the hardest hit area, and more than 700 others were injured. An 11th person was killed in Texas 100 miles northeast of Dallas and black tornado funnels swept on into Oklahoma.

Five were killed in Oklahoma and 14 were injured there, bringing the two-state death toll to 16. An estimated 800 homes were destroyed in Dallas alone.

AT LEAST 170 persons, many of them in critical condition, were injured enough to require hospital treatment in Dallas. The Department of Public Safety estimated that 600 others were hurt, but not enough to go to hospitals.

Five of the victims in Dallas were children, ranging from five years to one month old. The latest death victim was two-year-old Milton Hillard who died today at Parkland Hospital.

FATHERS RETURNING from work went berserk when they found their homes wrecked and families gone and police had to hold them until they calmed down.

A heavy thunderstorm hit Dallas again early today and a downpour of rain moving through with a squall line ruined what furniture was left by the tornado in the demolished homes.

Assistant Police Chief J. E. Curry of Dallas estimated that 800 homes were destroyed or damaged and that damage totals at least $1,500,000.

Record Group Expected at Ad Agency Meet

Most successful Conference in the history of the Western States Advertising Agencies Association is predicted for the April 25-26-27 session at Palm Springs by conference chairman, Douglas Anderson.

"Reservations have been flooding WSAWA headquarters at 730 South Western Avenue, Los Angeles," Anderson said, "with approximately 260 already in the works. It appears we will have the greatest attendance in the seven-year history of the convention." Anderson further disclosed that Keven Sweeney, president of the national Radio Advertising Bureau had been added to the three-day program. Sweeney will have as his subject, "Radio Advertising Business in 1962." His talk will highlight the Thursday afternoon session.

Social life will not be overlooked during the Palm Springs sojourn, with a Steak Fry slated for Thursday evening, the annual banquet on Friday night and other social functions. Junk Dealer Confesses Youth Died in Theft

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — An Omaha junk dealer has confessed that his 17-year-old helper was accidentally electrocuted while the two were attempting to steal wire from state power lines, police said today.

Otto Glaser, 52, said he watched in horror as young Donald Larry Marfil touched a live wire despite his shouted warning. "Don't Donnie . . . for God's sake don't cut that wire," Glaser said he shouted. But it was too late. The youth fell to the ground, a burned and mangled corpse. His hand was severed from his arm at the wrist.

Glaser said he realized the boy was dead but became panicky and loaded the body into his truck. He said he drove to what he thought was a hospital entrance and dumped it, tossing the severed hand after the body. The boy's body was discovered shortly before dawn near the Douglas County Hospital for the aged and chronically ill. When officers inspected the strange wounds on the youth, including severe burns on the soles of his feet and on his shoulders, and saw his severed right hand lying nearby, they suspected Marfil had been brutally tortured.

San Bernardino Library Closed

SAN BERNARDINO (AP) — The 33-year-old main Public Library was closed today after the City Council ruled the building was unsafe. The council acted on an engineering report that warned that a strong north wind could send the structure crashing to the ground. The Children's Department in the basement was closed last week after an inspection by the council and the Library Board.

Democrats Win Easy Victory In Texas Race

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Democrats retained control of the U.S. Senate today on the hard-fought victory of liberal Ralph Yarborough in a Texas special election. Yarborough torpedoed his Democratic opposition and Republican hopes in his first success in five tries for high office. He previously had lost three bids for the governorship and one for state attorney general.

HIS ELECTION meant that the Democrats will continue to hold a 49-47 edge in the U.S. Senate. The Republican Party went all-out in an effort to get a GOP candidate elected and win a 48-48 tie in the Senate. With Vice President Richard M. Nixon's tie-breaking vote, this would have given the Republicans control of the Senate. But Thad Hutcheson of Houston, upon whom the Republicans had pinned their hopes, never was in the running.

ALL TOLD, THERE were 20 men in the race — 18 Democrats and two Republicans. The Republicans, concentrating on Hutcheson, had hoped that the Democratic majority would split its vote so widely that a Republican minority would be enough to elect Hutcheson.

Yarborough will fill the 21 months remaining on the term of Price Daniel, who resigned from the Senate to become governor of Texas. The RACE WAS one between two Democrats—Yarborough and Congressman-at-Large Martin Dies.

Dies ran a close second as the hours ticked away, but when the Texas Election Bureau closed its doors for the night, Dies needed from 75 to 80 per cent of the remaining uncounted vote to catch Yarborough. When the election bureau quit counting Tuesday night, Yarborough had 310,842 votes to 255,016 for Dies and 292,721 for Hutcheson. A total of 184 of 254 counties had been heard from with 78 complete.

Don't Be An April Fool, Slow Down and Live, JayCees Say

"Don't be an April fool—slow down and live," says the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which today launched its campaign to make Palm Springs the most "safety-minded city in the United States."

Jaycee Chairman Terrence Roach said his organization has climbed on the safety handwagon with the Palm Springs Safety Council. The Jaycee program is part of the council's monthly theme project.

Pointing out that "safety is no accident," Roach noted that most accidents are not caused by "bad" drivers, but drivers who disregard the rules when they get into trouble.

Yearly accident tolls would decrease, Roach claimed, if auto operators would drive with a "decent regard for the safety and welfare of his fellow citizens."

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes to be wrong.

ANOTHER MILESTONE

Last week marked another milestone in the colorful history of Palm Springs—the celebration of the 21st Annual Desert Circus.

Truly, we are coming of age. And another indication that we have reached maturity may be found in the appearance in Palm Springs on Sunday, April 14, of that great nationally and internationally known musical organization, the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra with its equally famous conductor Alfred Wallenstein.

This concert is a tribute to the progress and growth of our Desert Resort, and to its people.

The Palm Springs Theater Guild, a local non-profit organization which arranged the appearance here of the Philharmonic, another great first, has served this community well for these past several years in presenting fine entertainment for both our visitors and our own Villagers. They are filling a needed place in the life of Palm Springs.

The residents of Palm Springs and their guests, can do no better than to show their appreciation of our cultural life by lending enthusiastic support to the appearance here on April 14 of Mr. Wallenstein and the 100 piece Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, when they present their Sunday evening concert under the desert stars at the Polo Grounds.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

The Money-Master

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Fair play is essential in human affairs because human judgment is never all-knowing, but such is not the case with Nature. No even-handed nonsense is practiced in handing out the creative talents of genius, or the magnetic qualities of personality. As a result, we occasionally get an authentic exception - to all rules, and it takes us a while to do him justice.

This is an excuse, if a writer needs one, for walking round and round the subject of Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey and his unprecedented behavior as a Cabinet member. The Secretary's prediction last January when he discussed the $72 billion Federal Budget as a "hair-curling" calamity was a provocative and quotable remark. It deserved all the rallery and repetition that it has stirred up.

THE INTERPRETATION and speculation which the quotation set in motion have been unrivaled since the riddle of the Sphinx. But, since January, nothing that has issued from Mr. Humphrey's own lips, or the President's, or from the reams of newspaper copy meditation, has clarified certain puzzlements, such as:

How can a Cabinet officer, who is a mere Executive agent, disagree with the Chief Executive and stay in office?

Why didn't Mr. Humphrey, known in town as Secretary of Everything, get the kind of budget he wanted in the first place?

HOW IS IT humanly possible for Mr. Humphrey to disagree (which is what he did, all glib euphemisms to the contrary) with the President and stay friends, whether in office or not?

TVA WANTS FUNDS

(East Prairie, Mo., Eagle)

The Tennessee Valley Authority has made its latest annual report to Congress. It contains a strongly-worded request for new capital to expand its facilities. Present margin of capacity overload is too small, the report states, and it may disappear altogether within the next few years.

The report also says that the Authority is earmarking some of its income for expansion. However, it then warns that its revenues from the sale of power "are sufficient to provide only a part of the capital that will be needed in future years to build the generating capacity required to keep pace with the economic growth of the valley power region."

This is an interesting and revealing bit of business, and the implications involved should be given thoughtful attention by Congress and the public at large.

If Congress appropriates the funds for expansion that TVA now requests, the money will be provided by all the people. This simply means that the taxpayers everywhere will then be subsidizing a part of the power bills of TVA's customers. It would be equally reason-

There is, I think, an explanation. It came to me as a result of two entirely separate experiences. One was a talk about Mr. Humphrey and his seeming mystifications with Senator Harry Byrd. The second was in reading Jean-Aubrey's "The Sea Dreamer," a book about the life of Joseph Conrad.

THE CONNECTIVE between these experiences is that both the Senator and the biographer were discussing men of extraordinary stature and maturity. Mr. Humphrey came to Washington, and novelist Conrad started to write, only after their minds were fully formed. Neither of these men undertook his career as "on the job training." Both were past masters of their fiscal and human material before shaping it to their purposes. So, Secretary Humphrey requires our special understanding, and I am free enough to say so since we are not personally acquainted. He is a shade larger than the standards by which we judge other Cabinet officers and Presidential advisors.

HE BREAKS THE rules because he overtops them. His vision from the peak of his fiscal knowledge and through the lenses of his economic perception is a superior thing. Added to this, the Secretary is an exceptionally attractive and persuasive man. And on top of it all, he is an honest man.

The combination is record-shattering. There have been genuine soothsayers who croak their warnings with such ill manners that the effect is lost. There have been smooth-talking, bull's-eye, prophets whose personal motives, however, were suspect because of their showmanship, ambition or eccentricity. But Mr. Humphrey—so far—stands, on solid feet, up to all these tests.

NOBODY WITH MUCH experience in Washington will predict what man will stand or tumble, come tomorrow. But the running record is that Secretary Humphrey's forceful influence is doing what has never been done before.

The tax-eaters at the Administration table are beginning to push their plates away and decline those second helpings which the Budget contemplated. Understand, this is something that often happens to elected officials who are beholden for their jobs to people back home. But when it happens to persons beyond the voters' vengeance, that is astounding.

Who's budget-cutting now? Well, the President, who cannot be re-elected, has conceded that some Federal construction may be deferred.

ALBERT COLE, Federal Housing Administrator, finds his agency doesn't need its full quota of money. Defense Secretary Wilson has declared for a cut in Pentagon personnel. Agriculture Secretary Benson has muttered something about "cooperating" with Congressional economists, while Commerce Secretary Weeks has said both yes and no.

George Humphrey is given credit for this collective phenomenon of renunciation. Some call his method "constructive sabotage," but the nomenclature isn't important. What counts is that the Budget never recovered from the Secretary's hair-curling displeasure. The delayed reac-able for the people everywhere to pay a part of the rent bills, the food bills, or any other bills contracted by residents of the TVA area.

The privately-owned, business-managed power companies must also expand their facilities. But they do it in a very different way out of their revenues, or with new money voluntarily invested in them. They get no doles from the taxpayers.

This is not all. TVA pays no federal taxes, no interest, and pays but relatively small sums in lieu of taxes to local government. The independent utilities, on the other hand, now pay about 23 per cent of their local revenues in taxes. So TVA does more than consume taxes through its subsidies. It reduces the total tax take of government by the large amount private companies doing the same business would pay.

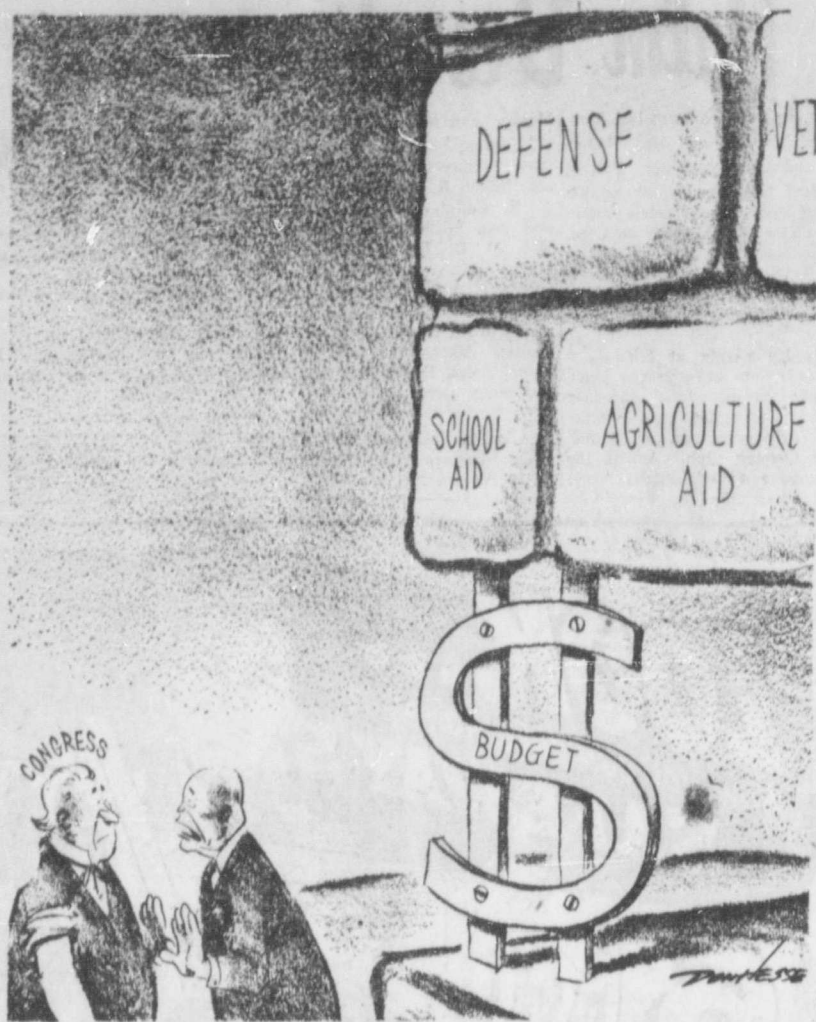

Thus does socialism bleed the country and everyone in it.

TIME TO SAVE

(Onaway, Mich., News)

It is time that all governmental agencies give some thought to ways of saving money, rather than finding ways of spending it and people to give it to. We are going to have to do without some of the so-called public services, so that we might keep our economy.

'I Wouldn't Even Sneeze If I Were You'

THIS SIDE of The Sun By Phat

Who'd rather be right than president. Said he, here I'll stay. At least, all through May. Leaving now would be unintelligent.

Let no one say that I look the other way when duty stares me in the eye. The first of May is just four weeks away. And high time to inform all who are unaware of the fact and to remind all of those who are, that May is one of the best months on the desert.

So, like we always say at this time of the year: plan now to Stay Through May.

SEEMS LIKE my memory slipped a cog the other day or that I was just plain stupid. As to the latter, please withhold all comments.

But, anyway, wishing to say something appreciative of Sandy Cooper of the FSP for his excellent ministrations to my traveling needs, I lifted a line from the sports pages of 27 years ago and wrote:

"What a handy guy was Sande."

THAT LINE was written about that great jockey, Earle Sande, who came out of retirement in 1930 to ride Gallant Fox to victory in the Kentucky Derby and go on to win the Preakness and Belmont Stakes, the Triple Crown.

But that's beside the point. What I did wrong was to credit that immortal line to the late Grantland Rice when it was the late Damon Runyan who first penned it.

APPARENTLY there are many sports fans of long standing in the Village for I was called on that and how. I will mention only Ray Corliss of those who called, for three reasons. (a) He was the most moderate and kind; (b) He's with KDES, an affiliate of The Desert Sun; (c) He said he had a copy of that great Runyan poem and story which he said he would let me read again.

Well, that is that, as we used to say in my younger days when a mission was accomplished.

ACCORDING TO United Press dispatches, things are getting tougher in Las Vegas. Not only do they clip you at the slot machines, dice tables, roulette, Vingt-et-Un. (Twenty One, to you) but even the barbers have joined in the fun.

They boosted the price of hair cuts to $2. And they won't trim you on Sundays or Mondays. The Casinos will however.

(Note to local tonsorialists: Leave it not be said that Palm Spring mimics Las Vegas in any thing.)

COMES A COMMENT on that recent case in Los Angeles where-in a young driver was fined $25 for shaving while driving along the Freeway.

"Why just sock him? How about the other one-armed driver who go merrily along, steering with one hand while the other holds up the roof of the car? Aren't they dangerous, too?"

"The saying, about the way to a man's heart isn't as true as it used to be," says Hal Chadwick. "Nowadays too many men have ulcers."

INEZ ROBB:

Fanny, Behind?

There are days, and this is one of 'em, when I think that Nasser is less of a menace to the world than the French and Italian courtiers.

Heaven help us, but Dior and an Italian designer named Pucci have just discovered that women have not only a facade but a rear elevation. Their clear and present intention is to elevate it even more!

Both have designed girdles to uplift and emphasize the bustle, a region that women for countless centuries have done their best to downgrade through light armor, whalebone, the two-way stretch and exercise.

M. DIOR, WHO pushed up and pushed out the facade, now intends to do likewise with the posterior, although it has generally been conceded through the ages that nature herself has been more than generous in this direction with the female form divine.

In the past, hoops and bustles have even helped to camouflage what was regarded as nature's prodigality in this region. It was Paul Gallico who first called attention to the fact that a woman in slacks justified the slogan "so round, so firm, so fully packed" no less than a certain brand of cigarettes.

BUT THE NEWS that this area is now to be given the glamour treatment has not affrighted me any more than the language in which it has been announced.

"His (Pucci's) blueprints for a girdle that uplifts the fanny have been accepted by Formfit of Chicago and will go into production right away," says the fashion editor of the New York Herald Tribune, the bible of the new, or Eisenhower, Republicanism.

"Pucci's power net pantie girdle," the Herald Tribune continues, "will do for a lady's behind what the bra has done for her front."

FANNY! BEHIND! What kind of language is this? Is this the end result of New Republicanism of which the country expects so much? Fanny! Behind! Ladies had neither when I was growing up, and I have hidden the newspaper where my 84-year-old mother-in-law cannot find it, least she be shocked out of her Republican properties.

It is one thing for European courtiers to tamper with our caudal extremities, but with our language, no, no, NO! If they must uplift the one, let them also apply the lever to the other.

After so much preoccupation with the facade, it is probably inevitable that fashion should about-face and bring up the rear. But will this call for a new kind of galmour girl?

"There's a divinity that shapes our ends," all right, and the name is Dior.

QUOTES

By UNITED PRESS

BERLIN: Soviet Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov, speaking at an East Berlin reception after signing a Soviet-East German agreement on the continued stationing of 22 Russian divisions in Red Germany:

"It is not our fault that the aggressive imperialist circles, who are holding to their course of a policy of strength and cold war, still do not take into account the interests of the working people and the results of their policy, which can only lead the world to a new devastating war."

MEMPHIS, Tenn.: Mrs. James Vinson, of Hernando, Miss., on learning her "baseball minded" runaway son Mickey Britt, 16, had been picked up by authorities on the West Coast:

"He's a good boy and we'll help him if it's baseball he wants."

CHICAGO — Illinois Communist Party head Claude Lightfoot on possibly moving the party's main office from New York to Chicago:

"We might stir up more organized resistance than the move is worth."

Unedited

What I am about to write may be hard to believe but actions speak louder than words, it is said.

Sitting beside me the other day was a native of Texas who came up with the bold statement that "I love the desert better than I do Texas."

He didn't whisper the words either, and fearing for the man I warily looked about to see if any 10 gallon hats were in sight before I permitted him to proceed with his story.

HIS NAME IS Charles Wallace. He is 50 years of age, he declared himself, and the reason why he loved the desert more than he does Texas were contained in the following statements.

You see, this here man Wallace has lived at Thousand Palms for nigh onto 15 years. And the desert just naturally grewed on him until now the thought of going back to Texas "just doesn't appeal to me in any way." "Oh," he added with a bit of nostalgia in his voice, "the State of Texas and its people are the best in the world."

ANYWAY, EVERYBODY knows that Charles H. Wallace has announced his candidacy for the Unified School board and he is determined to win the position now held by Haig Harris from the same district. "My interest in the position is purely one of public service," said Wallace.

And insofar as public service is concerned he has had a few years of experience. He worked for the City of Dallas in the budget department; four years with the social security board in an administrative capacity, in the Texas area, of course, and one year in the nation's capital. He spent four years with the Phillips Petroleum Company in Chicago, a city which is also a long ways from "little old Texas."

WALLACE OPERATES a date shop in Thousand Palms, and his brother a grocery store. His wife, Mona, has taught school in this district and her husband is of the firm belief "that our schools and churches are the laboratories of our democracy and our way of life in this country."

Good luck to you, Mr. Wallace, and also good luck to our friend, Haig Harris. May the best man win. We need good men on our school board, believe you me!

LET'S SWITCH to the world of plastics for a moment and a gentleman by the name of M. L. Briscoe, who is an executive with the B. F. Goodrich Industrial Products Company, which is a division of that famous rubber company.

He said that plastic products manufacturers are on the threshold of many great discoveries. Coats for milady can be manufactured to simulate the appearance of fur and would last indefinitely, but the women just won't buy such coats. Many leather chairs, are only so in appearance, plastic materials can and are being made to look more like leather than leather itself and will last a lifetime. Right now the industry is experimenting with the use of plastics in the manufacture of airplanes.

Briscoe pointed to what appeared like genuine leather and explained that it was just a piece of cloth impregnated with a special plastic material. Slowly but surely, plastics are entering the building materials field, and on a great scale. I expect, listening to the gentleman talk, that our houses may be constructed of plastic materials in the future.

AND GOING BACK into time, here are a few things you may not remember: the air brake was invented in 1874; the torpedo, 1777; the watch by Peter Hele in 1477; thermometer by Drebbel, 1609; microscope by Jansen, 1590; lithography by Senefelder, 1798, and printing in 1438 by Gansfleisch.

Some one said that wrinkles are made by laughing, and it was further stated in order to avoid them one should know just how to laugh.

Big Expose on Hal March

NEW YORK—Slim, suave Hal March, the quizmaster, is hereby exposed by your roving reporter, who comes from out in the hinterlands and likes those family touches.

Hal helps his bride, Candy, who's expecting, with the cooking.

"He's very unglamorous right now—he's emptying the garbage, Candy said when I phoned . . . and a minute later Hal said:

"I COOKED TONIGHT. Now I'm with the dishes. For my birthday you might buy me a nice dress."

Something maybe you didn't know about Hal: He once had a weight problem. But a Hollywood doctor investigated his metabolism six years ago. He gave Hal medicine which adjusted his Dept. of Interior. Now he eats and drinks everything he wants—never goes over 160—his high school weight in San Francisco.

Shelley Winters hopes to see the doctor, too, and get slim for her marriage to dream boy Anthony Franciosa.

PRINCESS MARGARET's in love (now) with a religious, middle-aged, wealthy, recently-divorced American, who's a close friend of President Eisenhower, and Queen Liz fears if Meg comes here in the fall, she might marry him. So reports Cornelius Vanderbilt. He adds that the gent—known to NY Boozie Who—may be assigned to a diplomatic post in Africa to save the empuh.

Margaret Sullivan — healthy again—looked real purty at "The Most Happy Fella" with her happy fella, her husband . . . Curious how Marilyn Monroe avoids saying she is or is she ain't expecting. Her agents (MG) say: "She's available RIGHT now for the RIGHT picture." But Veep Milton H. Green feels she doesn't want to work for a year . . . (Actress Joyce Miles of Detroit, now here, looks so much like her, we heard some guys offered to take her as a substitute).

Nanette Fabray's marriage to writer-director Ronald MacDougall, Brooklyn boy, will be in Mexico in May. Friends say he's better for her than tranquilizer pills.

FDR JR. KEEPS talking to his friend Louis Cerutti about the US Senatorship . . .

"Show business has changed from Edwin Booth to Isolation Booth," notes Ted Green . . . Ohio Want Ad: "Wanted: torn pants, badly ripped shirts, mangled straw hats. Object: to form a calypso band."

A little boy in church saw the choir entering all in white. He whispered to his father (according to singer Dick Olson): "Look! They're all going to get a haircut!"

Taffy Tuttle told Ben Collada,

of El Chico, she wasn't worried about some rising newspaper prices. "I bought up a big supply—several hundred copies—before the price went up," she bragged . . . Sophie Tucker's singing discovery, Guy Chorney, was showing at his San Francisco home some gifts his baby received from Sophie Tucker, Lawyer Jake Ehrlich, Tycoon Lou Lurie, etc. "Don't you ever buy anything?" "beckled comedian Joey Adams. "Sure," replied Chorney, "thank-you cards."

"WHAT'S HAPPENED in America?" Hungarian actress, Eva Bartok asked me. "People used to frown on girls who drank—now they frown on those who don't!" Annie Pie Sheridan's interested in playing "Auntie Mame" on the road. The Bway production is now sold out entirely through Aug. 5 . . . They say Van Johnson was very nonchalant when French actress Martine Carol did a nude bathing scene in front of him in "Action of the Tiger" in Spain. The all-American boy just acted as though this were everyday stuff. He tossed her a towel and calmly went on with his work.

Two picture stars having a drink at the Alibi in Palm Beach told David Milton Platt, TV interviewer there: "This is the second time in a row we haven't been in Confidential. We must be slipping!"

THE 'MIDNIGHT EARL' . . . Jimmy Dorsey became ill and left suddenly for a Miami rest; his hand stays at Roseland . . . Around Town

with Mildy Crawford

If you're wondering what can possibly go on next weekend . . . to match the activities of Desert Circus week . . . the answer is a combination of varied events . . .

Next weekend will find the Village the mecca for sports cars . . . for the Sports Car Races . . . The Palm Springs Garden Club will be staging its annual Flower Show at the Desert Museum on Saturday . . . and Saturday night is the date for one of the biggest social affairs of the year . . . that will entertain entrants for the Out of This World golf tournament at Thunderbird . . . Around 500 entrants and their wives will be guests of Barbara and Bob McCulloch at their fabulous Thunderbird home . . . for cocktails and dinner.

The McCulloch house is the one which was featured in Life magazine . . . because of its many unusual features . . . and tables will be set up in the sunken, air-conditioned tennis courts . . . with Santos catering the tremendous party . . .

Entertainment, too, will be "out of this world" . . . There will be calypso music by Sir Lancelot of Trinidad and his troupe . . . and by Bob Romeo, considered the greatest of the bongo players . . . In addition Mischa Nova, late of Paris, and his strolling violinists will play . . .

The tournament week will be a gay one . . . with plans including a get-together cocktail party on Tuesday evening . . . a dinner dance with music by Irene King and the Las Vegas Knights on Thursday . . . and a western chuckwagon dinner up the hill under the stars (with transportation by horse and wagon) and music by Spade Colley's orchestra . . . on Saturday night, April 13 . . .

A feature of the Sports Car Races this weekend . . . will be the Concours d'Elegance . . . which will be held Saturday afternoon, from 4-6, at El Mirador . . . There will be cocktails and entertainment . . . dancing and a fashion show . . . in addition to viewing all the expensively hand-some foreign cars . . . which will compete for trophies . . .

A painting by Earl Cordrey has been accepted by the Water Color Society for exhibition in New York City in their forthcoming annual show . . . This is the outstanding water color show that painters all over the country hope to be in . . . The Cordrey painting is one which he did recently in Mexico . . . and is a scene of dark shawled peasant women carrying flowers . . . entering the church at Patzcuaro, Mexico . . .

Gladys and Ray Gould of Palm Springs and Newport Beach, have sent out invitations to a brunch housewarming . . . for their new home at 475 Patencio Road . . . for Sunday, April 14 . . . Between 75 and 100 guests . . . mostly from Balboa and Los Angeles . . . will assemble for the festive affair . . .

Mrs. George Carpenter . . . who spent two weeks here in the Curt Swift house on South Calle Rolph . . . left on Monday . . .

Sidlight on the Desert Circus parade . . . Liberate spotted some furniture in a show window as the float passed . . . and leaped off to dash into the store . . . and order a desk and white davenport delivered to his new Palm Springs house . . .

UMBRELLA DESIGNED BY FLORIDA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

If you'd like healthful Sunshine every day of the year I'd advise you to contact my co-worker, Dr. Schwine, and buy some of the acreage he's now selling at his Florida playground, "Schwinesville." It's truly a fabulous place and nowhere else in the Sunshine State can compare with it. Sure other developments offer you all sorts of recreation but the catch is you have to wait or ride ten miles to get near them. At Schwinesville all the sports are right at your fingertips. And when the tide is high you can even Water Ski or Spear Fish right in your living room. If you're interested you better act fast and get in on the Big Free Offer that no resident of Schwinesville will want to be without -- a year's supply of Snake Bite Remedy.

CARROLL SHELBY, racing his Maserati, has become the unrestricted National Champion and one of the hottest sports car pilots in the world. At the race in Palm Springs this weekend, Shelby will be out to avenge his unfortunate showing at Sebring when he was forced out of the race in the early stages of the grueling grind. He is shown above talking with Jan Harrison, one of the queens of the Palm Springs Meet.

Stellar Fields in Local Races

International Aspect Given Airport Card

F.I.A. Approval for Sports Car Races Here this Weekend

Lindley Rothwell, race chairman for this weekend's Sports Car races at Palm Springs Airport, said this week that the local races had been given F.I.A. approval. This means, he said, that the Federation Internationale d'Automobile de Paris will give recognition to the races here and allow, for the first time in five years, international drivers on the F. I. A. list to be invited to a Sports Car Club of America race.

All approved drivers in the recent Sebring, Florida, races have been invited to compete here.

KEN MILES, sports car racing's most controversial driver, has entered the Palm Springs races and will duel with Bob Drake, the man who handed him his first major defeat in years.

Drake in Joe Lubin's Aston Martin and Miles in a Porsche from the Scuderia di Neumann will have a chance to rehab their recent match at Paramount Ranch where Drake won.

Another interesting development of the Palm Springs go is the announcement by John Edgar that he will be entering at least four cars, possibly more.

Scheduled to enter are Carroll Shelby, who called off the trip to Mexico and will drive one of Edgar's new Maseratis. Ruth Levy will drive the Porsche she captured a second with in Stockton. Paul O'Shea, national champion Mercedes Benz driver, will handle Edgar's Mercedes Benz 300 SL. Phil Hill will be in Edgar's 4.9 Ferrari, if all goes as planned.

MUST KEEP BROOKS

NEW YORK — City Council President Abe Stark said Tuesday there "should be no question about keeping the Dodgers in Brooklyn even if an appeal had to be made to the National League to prevent any transfer to some other city."

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK — Allie Reynolds, Jr., is discovering today that it's mighty tough trying to be a chip off the old block.

A few years back, you'll remember, his dad was one of baseball's finest pitchers. But the young man didn't decide until three years ago that he would like to emulate the famed "Super Chief" of the New York Yankees.

"I wear the same size shoes," young Allie explains ruefully as he strives to make the University of Oklahoma baseball team, "but it's awfully hard filling them."

PHYSICALLY A RINGER for his famous father, young Allie at 20 stands six feet tall and weighs 200 pounds. A gale of sophomore at Oklahoma, he, too, is articulate and soft-spoken and — as in the case of the shoes — he wears his dad's old glove, jacket and hat. "I'm afraid that's where the similarity ends," he grins shyly. "I've gotten off to a real slow start as far as a baseball career is concerned and I have a long way to go even as far as playing in college."

The signs were heartening to the "Chief" who was never out of double figures as a winner in a dozen years in the major leagues, a young alleplighted a no-bitter in high school regional tournament and helped his industrial league summer team to its league championship.

The "Chief" had admonished his son that his degree comes first. He never encouraged the boy to play baseball because, he says, "It takes natural ability and a great deal of natural desire." But since young Allie has made his choice, the "Chief" is eager to help.

Feller Believes Tribe Runner-Up

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Bob Feller thinks he old Cleveland Indians teammates will finish second or third this season despite brilliant pitching by Herb Score and Bob Lemon — and that the Yankees will meet Milwaukee in the World Series.

Feller, now retired, made the predictions Tuesday on a visit here to promote a baseball youth program.

"Score should win more than 20 games and I think you could say he is worth the million dollars Boston offered for him," said Feller. "I presume Score will make $500,000 for himself and another 5 million dollars for his club in baseball. And I guess that makes a man worth a million."

IT WOULD BE NICE to be able to report that young Allie is a natural who will be the star of the O.U. team this spring. He won't. As a matter of fact, he didn't even make the 24-man traveling squad which Coach Jack Baer took to Austin, Tex., for the season's opener against Texas.

But in fairness to young Allie, Baer has a veteran team and Oklahoma is almost as potent in baseball as it is in football. "I'm real green," young Allie admits, "and I've got to work hard to make up for lost time. Sure, it's easy to talk about baseball if you don't work every spare minute—and do a lot of thinking about it, too—that's all you'll wind up with—just talk."

With that kind of an attitude, those who remember the "Super Chief" won't discount this chip off the old block who "sure would like to make the majors, too." If he has any of the old man's talents it just may be like father, like son.

BERMUDA CROP THREAT TO SCORE IN MASTERS

By WILLIAM TUCKER
United Press Sports Writer
AUGUSTA, Ga. — An old southern custom — Bermuda greens—cropped up two months ahead of time today to confuse just about everybody on the eve of the 21st Masters golf tournament.

The tournament people were afraid the Bermuda would make the fine Italian rye grass, sown with a fine Italian hand, too slow. The players were afraid they would run into unseen tufts of the stuff in the ordinary business of coming through the rye.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED is this: Bermuda, the finest, base grass that a southern golf course can buy, is heavily mixed in the turf of the Augusta National Golf Course as a firming element but is expected to keep its head low. Due to a balmy southern winter it has started sprouting and, for better or worse, the Masters this year has Bermuda.

A field of at least 100 is assured for Thursday's first round. It is the blue ribbon event of golf bringing together the champions of the last generation by special invitation of Bobby Jones. Jones founded the tournament on a course of his own design in 1934 after his retirement.

Since 1949, however, Jones has been unable to make his lone annual appearance in the Masters due to a crippling back ailment. But such characters as Gene

Musial's Bat Paces Cards Over Redlegs

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press Sports Writer
Manager Fred Hutchinson of the St. Louis Cardinals isn't kidding when he claims Stan Musial "is like good whisky . . . he gets better the longer he's around."

Now 36 years old and approaching his 16th season with the Redbirds, Musial no longer has the "kick" of aged-in-the-wood giggle juice, but he still gives most pitchers a hangover.

The veteran outfielder had a perfect five-for-five day at bat Tuesday, stroking out four singles and a homer as the Cardinals downed the Cincinnati Redlegs, 9-2 to complete a sweep of their three-game spring series.

IN THE BATTLEFIELD against the Redlegs at Tampa, Fla., Musial helped the Cardinals rack up Joe Nuxhall, who gave up seven hits and three runs in the first three innings. Herm Wehmeier, meanwhile, blanked the Redlegs until the sixth when he was nicked for three hits and two runs.

At St. Petersburg, Fla., Enos Slaughter, another old-timer and a former Redbird, ignited a ninth-inning rally that enabled the New York Yankees to edge the Boston Red Sox, 1-0. The Yankees put together a single by Slaughter, a forceout, and back-to-back singles by Gil McDougald and rookie Tony Kubek for their only run.

THE BROOKLYN DODGERS snapped a three-game losing streak by whipping the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11-5. Rany Jackson and rookie John Roseboro homered for the Dodgers, who shelled Paul Minner for six runs on eight hits in the first three innings.

Homers by West Covington and Joe Adcock helped the Braves down Atlanta, 8-5, Tuesday. Warren Spain went the route for Milwaukee, although he was touched for 10 hits, including four homers.

INDIAN WELLS STARTS WORK ON SECOND NINE

By FRED WEIGEL

Indian Wells Country Club, the newest addition to an area that is now known as the golf capital of the world, was opened to the public in January, 1956, and today plans are completed to add nine more holes, completing the course.

The directorate of the country club this week sent their plans and maps to the county Planning Commission for approval.

The new country club was started when a group of prominent golfers saw the need for another golf club in the Palm Springs area. Their plans were immediately put into action.

GOLFERS WILL START on the number one tee and will travel a total of some 6,500 yards over the 18-hole course in a par 71.

Paul Prom spearheaded the building of the course, and later Millon Hicks and Desi Arnaz came into the picture. The first nine holes of the course were completed and in operation on December 22, 1956.

Also on the drawing board, and soon to be started, is plans for the construction of the $145,000 clubhouse. The amount of land taken up by the course and Desi Arnaz Western Hills Hotel totals 230 acres.

THE SECOND NINE HOLES are expected to be ready for play by August, 1957, and all the greens are Bent Grass and the fairways are Bermuda and Rye. It is the only golf course in the Palm Springs area that will be open the year 'round. Harry Hardin, the green superintendent, is considered one of the finest in the west, and his greens and fairways are among the finest in California.

There are lots of home-sites around the new golf course, and many fine homes are now under construction. Among the most prominent new purchasers are Gordon MacRae, Buddy Rogers and Mary Pickford, Bill Frawley, Vivian Vance, Earl Cordray, and many others.

OFFICERS of the Indian Wells Country Club, of which anyone can become a member, are Milton Hicks, president; John Crut, vice president; Eddie Susalla, formally the associate pro at Thunderbird, secretary-treasurer and club manager; and the directors are Linn Johnson, Errol Murphy, Desi Arnaz, Bill Worthing, and Mrs. Paul Prom (Mr. Prom died late last year and Mrs. Prom and her son Bart took over his interest).

Ever since the opening of the first nine holes at the beautiful new course, play has been underway every day. Golf pros, who have been hired to help golfers include Bill Maurer and Bob Cross, teaching professionals. Eddie Susalla is Pro-Manager.

The name of Indian Wells was derived from the original Cahulla Indian well located in this area in the 19th Century, and was at that time one of the important watering stops for early pioneers and local Indians for many years.

Architectural Agreement for County Bond Buildings Program Is Delayed

BI THELMA GOODSPEED
Appearing before the board of supervisors this week, two architects, Herman Ruhbau of Riverside and E. Stewart Williams of Palm Springs, proposed a "joint venture" agreement between the four architectural firms who worked on plans on county buildings previous to the bond issue election defeated last June, and the county.

The architects are Williams, Williams & Williams, Frey and Chambers, and John Porter Clark of Palm Springs; and Ruhbau, whose office is in Riverside.

AT THE SUGGESTION of Supervisor George Berkeley, consideration of the proposed agreement was postponed to April 8 to allow time to study it.

Ruhbau asked that there be no delay. He said that to study the proposed construction throughout the county as a preliminary to preparation of plans and plans, considerable travel and time will be required. This will be followed by drawing of plans so that there will be some thing to show the voters through the county and give them definite pictures of what it is to be accomplished by the bonds.

"THERE ISN'T MUCH time now to do all the work and have it ready so that the entire county may be made aware of the building program, before the June 11 election," said Ruhbau. "The people didn't have a clear picture when the building bonds were voted on before. Plans with considerably more detail work are needed to sell the bond issue to the people."

He said that after the local architects have done the ground work, professionals will take over to do the finishing work including coloring of the pictures.

UNDER THE agreement, upon completion of preliminary studies, cost estimates, and perspective drawings the architects are to be reimbursed for their actual costs not to exceed a total of $4,000. This amount will apply on the total fee if the bond issue carries and construction is carried out. The fee is eight percent of the cost of the work.

The buildings to be constructed under the $5,465,000 building bond issue are branch administrative centers in Indio, Blythe, Palm Springs, Hemet, Elsinore, Corona and the San Geronimo Pass; branch juvenile hall in Indio; road camps at Blythe and Indio; and in Riverside, courthouse additions, health and welfare building, agricultural center, communications center, general warehouse, and jail addition.

"WILL THE COUNTY have to pay the $4,000 whether the bond issue carries or not?" asked Supervisor Fred McCall.

Williams replied in the affirmative. He said the $4,000 will not cover the costs to the architects, but will help to defray expenses. He said each of the four firms has already spent about $1,500 on ground work for the plans.

Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain agreed with Supervisor Berkeley that the board should take a week to consider the proposal. Except for the query by Supervisor McCall, the other board members were silent.

Use of a Palm Springs janitorial service for the new county offices in the American Legion building at Palm Springs was approved by the county supervisors this week on recommendation by Administrative Officer Clay Begole.

The services will cost $60 per month plus $12 each time the floor requires waxing. The cost for the balance of this fiscal year including one waxing will be $192.

Added Travel Expense For Supervisors Voted
Supervisor William Jones balked this week at a proposed transfer of funds to pay for travel expense of the supervisors beyond the amount budgeted for this fiscal year.

"The board has exhausted the $6,000 placed in its travel expense budget," he declared. "The amount was sufficient. The board has to cut out state-wide junkets." Jones has long opposed attendance of supervisors at supervisory association meetings and sessions with state officials in Sacramento.

Mrs. Cockerell Services Held Today in L. A.

Funeral services were held in Los Angeles today for Mrs. Wilma Cockerell, widow of the prominent naturalist, Dr. T. D. A. Cockerell, and longtime Palm Springs resident and visitor.

Dr. and Mrs. Cockerell operated a small museum here for several years following his retirement in 1934. Dr. Cockerell died in Japan in 1948. Mrs. Cockerell had lived in California for the past few years.

Mrs. Cockerell leaves three brothers, John C. Roy and M. Claude Potter, and a sister, Mrs. Annette T. Stenbridge, all of Los Angeles.

Burial at the Chapel of the Pines in Los Angeles followed the services.

Women's League Urges Charter Hearing Crowd

Over 600 letters have been sent to newspapers, radio stations, civic and social groups and a few individuals throughout the county by the League of Women Voters, the board of supervisors were told this week, to determine their feelings in regard to a proposal that a board of freeholders be elected to prepare a county charter which would be put before the voters for approval or disapproval.

Attention was called in the letters, according to Mrs. Charles Ford of Riverside, to the fact that the supervisors have set April 8 at 2 p.m. as the time for a hearing on inclusion of the election of Freeholders on the June 11 special election ballot. The special election is on the county building bond issue.

Recipients of the letters have been asked to attend the hearing if possible, or to contact their supervisor. "We hope you will hear of their wishes and will be able to call the election of Freeholders at the time of the hearing," Mrs. Ford told the supervisors. She said that if the matter is to go on the June 11 ballot, a decision should be reached next Monday.

AUGUSTA, Me. (AP) — State police are cracking down on persons who use electric line insulators for target practice. Investigators said the situation became so acute at one time that 2,000 families were without electric power one Sunday afternoon.

At top, Judge Fields had nothing but good to say about Elsinore Machris, but persisted in levying a fine of $50 against the philanthropist. Mrs. Machris answered "Thank you Judge," and that cost her another $50, until the total was run up to $150. (Desert Sun Photos).

No Parking Zone Areas Planned

City Manager R. W. Peterson reported to the city council this week that the police department will make several requests of the council at its next meeting.

Among the items up for discussion will be the zoning for "no parking" on the north side of Riverside Drive from Calle Palo Fierro to Sunny Dunes, and on Cerritos at the Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School, near the corner of Baristo.

Realty Board Observes Real Estate Week

The Palm Springs Real Estate Board will begin its observance here today of Real Estate Week, joining hundreds of similar boards across the country during this same period in presenting to the public the high aims and obligations of Realtors. Theresa Press, board president announced today.

Mrs. Press explained that Realtors are "Those Pledged to an Established Code of Ethics," and they are also those real estate brokers who have taken on the duty of providing individual and community services beyond the call of ordinary commerce.

These obligations — immensely important to the persons dealing with and through Realtors — arise from the Realtor's membership in the local board and in the State and National Association of Real Estate Boards. Only by membership in these bodies may a broker use the term Realtor.

Mrs. Press also said "In joining the local and national Realtor organizations, the incoming broker member pledges himself to act in accord with the Realtor's strict code of ethics which is based upon the Golden Rule and embodies these words: 'Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them.'"

She further explained that the standards of this code are higher than those set forth in state license laws, and the local board is empowered to see to it that its members live up to its provisions. In addition, Realtors have distinguished themselves through their adherence to this strict code of ethics, as well as being a group working closely with all citizens for the betterment of their communities.

New Disability Social Security Rules Explained

Disability payments will begin July 1, 1957, under the social security law according to J. C. Hollister, district manager, Social Security Administration.

Two types of protection against the effects of disability are available to the person who has worked under social security and then has to stop working because of physical or mental illness. Unfortunately, many persons who would appear to qualify for this protection haven't gone to their social security office to find out about it, and if they fail to do so before July 1, they may lose all or part of that protection.

An individual who is so seriously disabled that he's unable to engage in any significant work may qualify for monthly payments if he's at least 50 years old. Even if he's less than that age, he should file an application to "freeze" his social security account so that the payments coming to him later or to his family if he dies will not be diminished in the future.

The disabled person must have worked a year and a half out of the three years just before he became disabled and also live out of the 10 years immediately prior to that disability. His disability must be a type that will continue indefinitely with little prospect for recovery within the foreseeable future.

Further information about old-age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits may be obtained from the social security office at 375 W. Seventh Street, San Bernardino, Calif. Telephone TUrner 8-0265.

Cathedral City P-TA Officers To Be Installed

The officers elect of the Cathedral City P-TA will be installed at the meeting Thursday afternoon, April 4, at 2 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Cathedral school.

Mrs. Paul Clark will install the officers for the coming year. Preceding the meeting, the members of the board will meet at 1 p.m. in the conference room of the cafeteria.

Air Conditioning Bids Requested

Bids for installation of an air conditioning system in the county administration building at Indio will be received by the board of supervisors at 11 a.m. on April 22.

On recommendation by Administrative Officer Clay Begole, the supervisors provided $7,500 for the air conditioning Monday by transfers from courthouse outlay funds. Begole said that this amount, together with an amount of $2,563 already allocated, should be sufficient to cover the installation.

New Lighting In Hotel Idea of Villager's Firm

A new idea in lighting fixtures, produced by a Palm Springs resident, emphasizes the ultra-modern theme of Desi Arnaiz' Western Hills Hotel.

The hotel, which opened Friday, has done away with lamps in favor of specially designed fixtures suspended in such contrivances as futuristic mobiles hanging in the dining rooms.

The fixtures were produced by the Globe Lighting Products, Inc., of New York, owned by Isadore Rosenblatt, of 1480 Via Miraleste.

Thrifty Offers New Service To Fishermen

Local Thrifty Drug Store officials today announced another special service to fishermen, the posting of Lupe Saldana's authoritative fishing column each day in Thrifty's fishing department.
Sportsmen will find information on local and distant areas where fishing is particularly good, whether they prefer deep sea, surf or fresh water fishing.

EVEN EXPERIENCED anglers look to Lupe Saldana for helpful hints on various types of tackle which can best be used in different areas.

Posting of Saldana's daily column will provide Thrifty's patrons with a convenient reference source which they will find helpful as they look through the vast stock of nationally advertised fishing gear in Thrifty's complete fishing department.

THIS YEAR MORE than ever, Thrifty has selected fishing equipment for every member of the family—all of it offered at Thrifty low prices.

The beginner and the near-professional will both find an ample selection of rods, reels and tackle in the all-new Thrifty fishing department.

Ike Gives Slow Down Order To His Drivers

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he has issued orders to his Secret Service drivers never to exceed the speed limit in the future.
The President told his news conference he had no idea that his car was speeding on his drive from Washington to Gettysburg, Pa., last Friday.

Police of Montgomery County, Md., flagged three carloads of reporters who were following the presidential car, but did not slow down the chief executive himself. The reporters said they and the President were doing 70 to 75 miles an hour when the press cars were slowed down in a zone where the legal speed limit is 55 miles.

Montgomery County police said later they did not observe any "improper acts" by the presidential limousine.

Mr. Eisenhower discussed the incident good humoredly in reply to a question at the start of today's news conference.
